

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR PRIVACY NOTICE

The purpose of this Privacy Notice (“Notice”) is to inform our independent contractors of the categories of personal information we collect and the purposes for which we use such personal information. This notice is intended to comply with all applicable laws, such as the California Consumer Privacy Act. If any provision below conflicts with a legal requirement, then we will comply with the applicable law. Please also review our Privacy Policy, which is incorporated by reference into this Notice.

1. Collection and Use of Personal Information for Business Purposes

We collect, use, and disclose your Personal Information for business purposes only and consistent with applicable laws. Where we disclose Personal Information to third parties, we do so for the business purposes described below and, where appropriate, we require that such parties maintain the confidentiality of the Personal Information and maintain appropriate systems and processes to ensure its security and protection.

For purposes of this Notice, “Personal Information” is information that relates to an identified or identifiable person. Personal Information does not include deidentified, aggregated, or combined information, which includes data that is not reasonably capable of identifying you or being linked to you.

We may collect and use the following categories of Personal Information about you to manage your contractual relationship with us:

2. Additional Purposes for Using Personal Information

In addition to the uses set forth above, we may use and share the categories of Personal Information identified:

- To comply with applicable legal and regulatory requests and obligations (including investigations).
- To establish or defend legal claims and allegations.
- For security or the prevention, detection, or investigation of fraud, suspected or actual illegal activity, violations of our company policy or rules, or other misconduct.
- To seek advice from lawyers, auditors and other professional advisers.

3. California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, California law provides you with the following rights with respect to your personal information:

- The right to know what personal information we have collected, used, or disclosed about you.
- The right to request that we delete any personal information we have collected about you.
- The right to correct inaccurate personal information about you.

4. No Sale of Personal Information

We do not “sell” your personal information or “share” your personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising, as those terms are defined in the CCPA.

5. Sensitive Personal Information

Your sensitive personal information will not be used for any additional purposes that are incompatible with the purposes listed above, unless we provide you with notice of those additional purposes.

6. Submitting Requests

You may submit requests to delete, correct, and/or to know personal information we have collected about you by accessing our California Consumer Rights request portal at:

- Request to Know or Access Information
- Request to Delete Information
- Request to Correct Information

or by contacting our Toll-Free Telephone Number at:

800.349.4354

We will respond to your request in compliance with the requirements of CCPA or other applicable law.

7. Verification of Your Identity

When you exercise these rights and submit a request to us, we or our partners will verify your identity by asking you to authenticate your identity via standard authentication procedures. For example, we may ask for your email address. We also may use a third-party verification provider to verify your identity.

8. Non-Discrimination

If you make a request under the CCPA, we will not discriminate against you in any way. For example, we will not deny you discounts or other benefits or impose penalties on you, or provide you with or suggest that you will receive a different level or quality of benefits or services.

9. Authorized Agents

You may permit an authorized agent to submit a request to know or to delete your personal information. If we receive a request on your behalf, we will ask that person to give us proof that you gave that person written permission to make a request for you. If that person does not provide us with written proof, we will deny their request so that we can protect your personal information.

10. Automated Decision-Making

We generally do not use automated decision-making technology, as that term is defined by State Privacy Laws. If we make use of automated decision-making technology, you will be informed through a separate privacy notice.

11. Record Retention

We may retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. We strive to retain your personal information no longer than is reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes listed in this Notice or as required by law. We retain your personal information in accordance with applicable law and internal record retention practices.

12. Questions

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or to request this Privacy Policy in another form, you may call us at 800.349.4354 (800.DIXIELINE) and ask to speak with Robert Shiflet, or you may email us at robert.shiflet@bldr.com.
